THE CHINA MAIL.

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1879.

In resuming our consideration of the Chinese Address to Her Majesty the Queen, got up by the Wa-to Hospital Committee, forwarded to London by H. E. the Governor, acknowledged by the Secretary for the Colonies, and published in yesterday's Gazette, it is to be regretted that its subject matter should not have been allowed to lie dormant for the present. It was a noteworthy feature of the public meeting of the 7th October last that not one word was ever breathed suggesting the recall of Mr. Hennessy from the administration of this government. The keynote to the proceedings will be found in the first resolution; and it was this, that the insecurity of life and property had been "mainly caused by a policy of undue leniency towards the criminal classes." We do not believe that one single intelligent resident of Hongkong, foreign or native, whose opinion was free from bias, ever doubted the truth of this statement; and beyond the expression of an opinion that a Commission should be appointed, no further hostile action was taken. It will, therefore, seem strange to some that this feeble counterblast of the so-called "compact city"—which "knocks at Her Majesty's gate," humbly praying that the Governor should be permitted to stay his full term of office and also a further term—should be made so much of at so inopportune a moment. Has not His Excellency been bamboozled by these gentlemen of the Wa-to? and can it be possible that his Chinese friends have concocted all this laudatory parade of words and miscellaneous signatures simply with the view of covertly suggesting the removal of the Governor—in the customary inverse Chinese style? Certainly, they have been the first to raise the question of his removal, and their watchword when obtaining signatures was said to be "The foreigners wish to get rid of the Governor, because he supports the Chinese." It seems a pity that Mr. Hennessy has again opened this public sore for another reason. While the dignified, business-like, and apparently calm but resolute tone which characterized the proceedings of the public meeting of 7th October is indisputable, there is a possibility that time and a greater show of severity might have somewhat lessened the urgency of the desire for immediate action. The Governor, by his publication of this miserable address, has utterly defeated the apparent object of his friend Sir Michael Hicks Beach, and has undone all the good effects commonly attributed to the wise policy of "letting sleeping dogs lie." As, however, Mr. Hennessy deliberately chooses his own course, so must he inevitably abide by the result.

The strong probability that not one of the native residents who signed this ill-judged petition can claim the full rights of a subject of Her Majesty, seems to have been deemed of no consequence by those who regard this document in the light of a certificate of Napier, arrived at Shanghai on Wednesday, 30th ult., from Hongkong.

The "Blue Ribbon" of the meeting, the "Shanghai Derby," (says the News) fell an easy victory to Jolly Friar, the winner of the Giffins, who finished half a length in front of Driving Cloud, having been held half up the straight. The time was, however, not fast, 3 min. 15 sec., as compared with Ten Broeck's win in 1876, when the race was run in 8 min. 14 sec. The win on the present occasion seemed to be a popular one, and was hailed with much cheering.

GENERAL GRANT AT CANTON.

7th May.
The weather to-day has been more enjoyable; and as the wind is again south we hope the monsoon will freshen to-morrow. This forenoon the Chinese officials called on General Grant at the Consulate; and at one p.m. about twenty Ladies and Gentlemen of the American Missionary families attended there on the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln to meet General and Mrs. Grant at a tiffin; Mr. Borie, Mr. Holcomb, Mr. Denny, Captain Perkins, and several other Gentlemen being present. Subsequently General Grant, accompanied by Mr. Lincoln and other Gentlemen, proceeded to Lee Ming Koon (where there is an arsenal) towed by the Vice Roy's steam launch. But at half-past five the Great Chief proceeded to the more serious encounter of the afternoon, accompanied by his Lieutenants, within the city, prepared by the Vice Roy, wherein "chop sticks" will be "nimble lads" indeed, if they outvie "Sheffield blades," although it is understood that the generous and high-minded host designed the utmost provocation to a conflict of appetites if not of wits; and that not content with banqueting his distinguished Guest, H.E. intended to send the whole twenty or more courses out of the city to the American Consulate for the delectation of Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Lincoln. That, certainly, partakes of the grandiose in hospitality and politeness towards the Ladies!

SUPREME COURT.

IN CRIMINAL JURISDICTION.
(Before His Honor the Chief Justice, Sir J. Smale.)

Thursday, 8th May.

In the case reported in our yesterday's issue in which three men, Tsung Afo, Wang Akeu, and Lau Ati, were charged on four counts with simple theft of a blanket, quilt, &c., theft with violence, being armed with swords and spears; assault; and with intent to do grievous bodily harm, and with actually doing grievous bodily harm to one Wong Yit Hoo in Tai Tam Bay, was continued to-day. The case has been fully reported lately in our Police Intelligence column. Evidence was heard yesterday, and to-day His Lordship summed up at considerable length, after which the jury found the prisoners severally guilty on the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd counts, and not guilty on the 4th count.

His Lordship, addressing the prisoners, said:—You have all three been convicted of the three charges against you; need not go into those charges as you fully understand them and know for what you are about to be punished. I must give you credit for an amount of ingenuity with which up to a certain point you have laid your plans; it shows that you know very well what you were about. But with all other robbers who are discovered, and they nearly all are eventually, you were unable to carry out your cleverly conceived designs. It is a pity that all robbers and thieves know how constantly they are unable to carry out their wicked schemes. There is nothing in this world that is so exposed to robbery and theft as those poor boats of the harbor and coasts of this island. The three prisoners were then sentenced to five years' penal servitude on each of the three counts, the sentences to be cotemporaneous. His Lordship remarking that he hoped that the example made of these three men would protect other boats, by preventing other thieves from committing similar depredations.

THE EMBEZZLEMENT CASE.

BEGINA C. FUNG YOW.
Fung Yow, a respectable looking and apparently very intelligent Chinese, was charged in that, being a person acting in the capacity of a servant for the firm of Numsy Kessowjee, and entrusted with the receiving of money, he did on the 28th February last, having received from the Kwang Sung Lee shop, in virtue of his being so employed, and for his master, the sum of $2385, fraudulently and wickedly steal, and embezzle, and devote to his own purposes that sum; a second count charged him with embezzling a sum of $1692.50 which had been paid to him for his masters by Khamatulla Dobbjee on the 27th April. The third count charged him with the embezzlement of $56.18 paid him by one Samadeen for his masters, and the fourth count charged him with feloniously stealing and embezzling and appropriating a sum of $11,077.19.

The Acting Attorney General prosecuted and Mr. Ng Choy defended the prisoner. The jury consisted of the following Gentlemen—J. W. Jarnan, W. Vinton, S. B. Roberts, J. R. White, G. A. Grossman, Alder, Guss, and N. Spratt.

Mr. Jarnan opened the case briefly, and called as his first witness the clerk of the firm in whose employ prisoner had been.

Mahomed Khettaey (whose evidence, given in Guzerati was translated by Mr. Delabhey Murcherjee, merchant, who was specially thanked and complimented by the Court) said:—I am a member of the firm of Numsy, Kessowjee & Company, and conducted the business there. Prisoner was our comrade; I was in the firm's service eight or nine years. He had not given us any security. I joined the firm in 1872. The other three partners have been in the firm since the commencement. There has been no change during the last seven years. I do not know the exact conditions on which the prisoner was engaged. But by my time his duties have been the collection of outstanding moneys, to keep accounts of such and of all moneys paid out, to keep accounts of all goods sold to Chinese. I kept the account of goods received. We paid him for some time $35 and later $30. This amount included the wages of the staff he employed, and the reduction was made because of a reduction in the staff. He had four coolies, one shroff, one watchman. All the goods that were sold locally passed through his books. As soon as the sales were effected they were communicated to the comrade. We did not consult with him before completing the sale. He noted the transaction in his books. Whenever the purchaser came to take delivery of goods the comrade came and informed us of the same. He had instructions to keep a note of all deliveries of goods by him.

As a matter of business he followed our directions. With regard to the payments of those goods it was his business to collect all moneys due, and to let us know that a certain amount was collected. We had given him instructions to keep a note of every amount received by him, and he kept such accounts. I know also that on all goods purchased from, or sold to, Chinese the comrade received a commission. On the sale of Patna opium the commission was $1 a chest; and on Malwa opium $2 per chest. I have been long in the country, and I know that the system has grown up. It is the universal custom to that date. The balance then (18th Nov.) was $3193.12, according to his account. That of course was the amount he was to receive for the month. The commissions made us for $30 per month. The most important part of his earnings. He was there on the same footing as other employees; it was his duty to obey all our orders, and to attend to our business. The Chinese, whether purchasers or sellers, paid commission on everything; in silk the comrade gets from a $2 to $3 per thousand dollars. It is a recognized and allowed commission; in all cases it is the Chinese who pay. It was immaterial if he did not inform us at once of any small amounts he collected. At the interval of fifteen days or twenty days, or a month, or sometimes even two months, my assistant used to get accounts from him, according as it suited our leisure. Whenever we had occasion to compare books, we simply called on him to produce his accounts. Sometimes they were not ready. When accounts were looked over a balance was struck, and if the balance was not very considerable in amount we used to allow him to retain it; if it was considerable, we used to tell him to send it to the bank, and for that we passed an order on him through the bank. It was usual for him to produce the balance required at once. He had a head clerk named Abdooh Hosen; it was his duty to take the accounts from the comrade, and generally to keep all our accounts. The clerk made some communication to me on the 26th February. In consequence I sent for the prisoner and said to him "Comrade, this balance money, you pay me. My watchman kept bank, perhaps Court, eleven thousand more." The comrade was rather confused and said:—"No got." I repeated these words twice over; he said "No got" only once. I then said "Suppose you no pay money, I must go take warrant; and by and by you got more trouble, because this money no belong me." He has as much knowledge of pidgin English as I have. He quite understood what I said. He spoke not a word. I went forthwith to my solicitor, Mr. Brereton. The prisoner was arrested the same day on a warrant by a magistrate, on an information I laid. My reason for saying the money was not mine was that the firm was under difficulties, and we considered the money the property of the creditors. The money was really ours. I do not know what he understood by it. He had knowledge of the difficulties of our firm from the 5th or 6th of January. The firm stopped payment on the 6th January. We did not exactly tell him not to pay and hold, but it was patent to him; he could pay no money without order.

The Court: You have been a long time in this country and know the relations between comrade and comrade (a specially understood term) and their firms? Yes.
Was there any difference between the relationship of this comrade to your firm, and that between all other firms and their comrade? None.
Cross-examined:—I have been manager in two other firms in Hongkong, and by that experience have come to know the relations between firms and comrade. That period covers nine years. In previous years it was not usual to require securities, but it is usual now. It may be useful in certain engaging comrade, to place certain restrictions. I don't know what other firms do. We did not give prisoner permission to trade; we do not know whether he did so; we did not care to keep ourselves informed.

His Honor:—Where ignorance is bliss "thou knowest the rest."
Witness continued:—I did not know that the comrade was a partner in the firm of Kin Hing Cheung opium shop, nor that he was a partner in the Tin Yune opium shop. I have heard of these firms. It may be that on two or three occasions the latter firm, four or five years ago, went security for us to the O.B.C. I do not know whether prisoner was out of pocket in paying his staff. He brought Chinese customers to our house and stood security for them. We did not care then whether the customers paid or no. No Chinese merchant with whom we have had dealings has failed. The prisoner used always to have a balance in hand; we never before asked for the whole of the money he had in his hands to be paid into the Bank. On some occasions when we required up there would be $10,000 or $20,000, in other cases $50,000 or $60,000. For small payments we gave cheques on the comrade. In settling the balance the $30 salary was credited him without cheque. I and my brother filed a petition of bankruptcy on the 15th or 16th January.

Examined:—We never bought from or sold to the prisoner personally. He was acting, it may be said, as our agent. We have never bought from or sold to him as a member of a firm. In fact I do not know he is a member of any firm. All our dealings with him have been as a comrade. One room in our office was set apart for his use as our comrade.

Abdooh Hosen deposed:—I am clerk to the firm of Messrs Kessowjee & Co. and have been so for over three years. I keep all the accounts. I used to take periodically the accounts from him. The sales book I produce (marked "A"). A portion of the handwriting it contains is in another hand, but from 5th June 1876 to date is mine. From 27th September 1878 the entries have been made by me on separate pieces of paper (produced). The new cash book (marked B) begins 26th Octo. 1876 and continues until the 5th Feb. 1879. The accounts are kept in Guzerati, entirely in my handwriting. The cash-book (marked C) begins on the 15th October 1876, and was used until the 21st May 1878. I also kept the journal and ledger. The sales-book "A" contains only sales of Benares and Malwa opium; there is another account for Patna. I was informed by Mr. Khettaey or the prisoner of all sales, and entered them. The entries of cash payments in B and C are made from different items given serially by the comrade. At periodic times I took the accounts from him; sometimes at an interval of a few days, sometimes one or two or even three months; at times it has been four. He read out his entries in pidgin English, and I recorded them in Guzerati. We both balanced the accounts and saw that they agreed. The balance was struck in my cash book and in his own book. However long the interval was we went just as precisely into the books, striking and carrying forward a daily balance. The balance was very seldom in favour of the comrade. It might happen once or twice in a year. On January 20th I called on the prisoner to bring his accounts. I had to begin on the 15th or 18th November 1878, and carried them up to January 1879, when there was a pause as Mr. Khettaey had had to go to adjust the accounts only up to that date. The balance then (18th Nov.) was $3193.12, according to his account. The balance on 4th January 1879 was $3119.02. I told him to be careful that no items were left out. I knew before the 20th January that the Bombay firm was in difficulties. We next sat on the accounts on the 6th February, taking the entries between that date and the last comparing. On the 20th January prisoner made some remarks as to what he had heard outside regarding the difficulties of the firm in Bombay. I said I had heard the rumours outside myself. Between the 20th January and the 6th February I made an examination of the journal and cash book, and discovered the omission of some eleven or twelve items from the cash book which were in the sales book. Three chests of opium to Rahmatullah Dobbjee had no entry in the cash book or sales book. Referring to the letter book I found we had advised this sale to our Shanghai firm. Upon that I said to the comrade:—"Rahmatullah, there was what for no putting book?" He said:—"I look see book." This was about the 25th January. I said "go see book" and he left. The same day he came back and said "My no catches money." I then went to Mr. Rhamatulla, mentioned the date of the sale April 27th. I went by myself the first time; next time, same day, the prisoner went with me. I spoke first in Guzerati (Conversation, not evidence, as prisoner did not understand it). I then told him in pidgin English what had been said; Rhamatullah have paid Hadjee Allee his cheque, Shanghai bank. Rhamatulla spoke to the same effect in pidgin English. Comrade said:—"My watchman go try Hongkong Bank." He went away and the next or following day he came to me in the office and said:—"My have catches proper; just now can puttee book." The amount was $1,092.50. I made a further discovery with regard to a sale of four chests of opium that had been sold to the Kwan Sung Lee shop. I found that the date of sale was April 18th, 1878; and the price was $568.75 per chest, or $2,355. I discovered these entries in the book four or five days after the 20th January. I found no corresponding entry in my cash book. I spoke to the comrade about this entry. "Bombay counter; four chests Pains short. You look see book. You find me. He came the next day and said in pidgin English:—"Yes have sellum four chests, Kwan Sung Lee. My have catches money 26 April moon." "Can puttee book." I don't think he said anything more. I mentioned to Mr. Khettaey these things. I recollect a bill on India sold to Samadeen, for $56.18, and this amount did not appear to the credit of Samadeen's account. This was done on the 2nd or 3rd December 1878. It was the equivalent of our bill on Bombay. I said to the comrade, "This belong Samadeen; puttee he counter." Samadeen does not keep a regular account, but he sometimes bought small orders. I recollect the 4th Jan. balance was $3119.02 as stated by the comrade on the 20th. On Feb. 6th when we next examined the accounts I had made out a list of all the items that had been omitted and said, "Before what things no have puttee book, just now can puttee book all." He said "can do" and stated the items. He began with "$56.18, put counter, Samadeen;" and I put that down 5th January. The next sum was $1392.50. I said:—"Put Rhamatullah three chests." He said:—"Can puttee. $1392.50." I did so. The next item mentioned was a payment by E. Tye, which account I had discovered had been omitted; he told me "can now puttee. $1398.75." I entered that amount. $2385, the price of four chests of opium he also told me might be put in, but I do not recollect what words he used.

The Court adjourned at 5.30 till 10 a.m. to-morrow, prisoner being admitted to bail in $11,000. At the suggestion of the Court it was also agreed that an accountant's analysis or statement of the accounts, showing clearly what the different items were which they charged him with embezzling, should be prepared. The case will last all day to-morrow, and if concluded will keep the Court sitting till late in the evening.

OSTENDING GOODS BY FALSE PRETENCES.

James Phillip Le Marquand, describing himself as an ex-Police Constable, was brought up again on remand to-day for obtaining jewellery to the value of $45 from the Le-choy shop by false pretences, in respecting himself to be in the employ of the Opium Farmer. It appeared in evidence that the defendant did not belong to the Farm. It seems the defendant had pawned some of the jewellery in question after getting them from the complainant. As this appeared to be the defendant's first offence, his Worship convicted him and discharged him from his conviction under Ordinance 7 of 1865 Section 92, upon the defendant's paying to the complainant the sum of $25, as amends for the jewellery pawned and upon his returning to the complainant the other jewellery in his possession, which he had not disposed of. The defendant paid up the amount and returned the jewellery.

DISCONDUCT AS A POLICE CONSTABLE.

Police Sergeant Nicholas Parry was charged with negligently allowing a prisoner to escape. It appears that a Chinese was convicted and fined $150 or 3 months' hard labour for a breach of the "Excoise Ordinance 1868-1879" on the 5th instant, and whilst the Sergeant was engaged in the Clerk's Office at the magistracy in giving some particulars as to the execution of an arrest warrant, his prisoner managed to make his escape.

Mr. Johnson from the firm of Messrs. Sharp, Toller and Johnson appeared on behalf of the Opium Farmer, and spoke to the efficient manner in which the defendant had done his duty in connection with the Opium Farmer, and pointed out that although the latter lost half of the fine had the amount been paid, he begged of the magistrate to deal as leniently as possible with the case.

The defendant expressed regret at what had occurred, and begged that his six years' service in the London Police and his six years' service in the local force might be taken into consideration in passing sentence upon him.

Under these circumstances his Worship fined the defendant $10.

The other cases before the Court were of a trivial nature.

China.

CHINESE.

April 23rd.
The steamer Kiangkwan, Captain Morse, had met with a serious accident, having collided with and sunk an iron steamer belonging to the Futai of Nanking. The collision occurred off Tientsin, about seven miles below Chinkiang, at 8.30 this a.m. Four persons were drowned, among them being a Western in charge of despatches for Soochow. The Kiangkwan was also in great danger, having two large holes in her bows which caused her to take about four or five feet of water in her forehold. From what can be gathered through the Chinese passengers and others on board, the Kiangkwan is entirely blameless. The Futai's steamer behaved in a most erratic manner, trying (as is usual) to cross the bows of the Kiangkwan, after first showing quite a contrary course. The Kiangkwan had her engines stopped and reversed, but had not lost her way, being deeply laden, when the collision took place. Her repairs will be temporarily patched up here, and she will probably leave this place late to-night or to-morrow morning on her upward voyage. Kwo Sung-tao and family are passengers on board.

The Taotai has visited the steamer for purposes of investigation among the natives, but some kind of official enquiry will be made on her return to Shanghai.

The combination of the Szwatow Guild against foreigners getting their usual supply of opium is being successfully maintained, and it would be interesting to know if this open-handed defiance of our Treaty rights meets with the approval or disapproval of those appointed to watch the interests of foreigners in this country.—N. C. Daily News.
